

Fun with Leaves

Bill had many leaves in his yard. He raked them into a big pile. Pat helped.

Then Bill got a very good idea. He ran and jumped in that pile of leaves.

“Wow! What fun!”

“Let me jump,” said Pat. He jumped in the leaves.

Soon both boys were jumping. They threw leaves up into the air.

Mother looked out and said, “I see two boys having fun. Come in for something to eat.”

“See our big pile!” said Bill.

“Where?” asked Mother.

The boys looked around. The pile was not big now. The leaves were all over the yard.
